

CURRENCY WILL BE DISCUSSED

The Financial Bill Long Talked Of Comes Up Before The Senate For Discussion.

PROVIDES FOR ISSUES OF MONEY

Comptroller Of The Currency Shall Decide How Much Each Bank May Issue--Never More Than Seventy-Five Per Cent Of Bonds Deposited.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—The financial bill which has for some time been in preparation by the leading representatives of the Senate committee on finance was today presented to the Senate and referred to the committee on finance.

The bill provides for an additional issue for bank circulation which shall not exceed two hundred and fifty million dollars upon the bonds other than those issued by the government, including state and municipal bonds in the approved cases.

The comptroller of currency is given the discretion in the issuance of the proposed currency and is authorized to decide as to the time and amount to be awarded any banking institution.

It is provided that the increased circulation shall at no time exceed 75 per cent of the value of the bonds deposited.

To Open Incident. Representative Gill of Maryland today offered a resolution designed to open the way for a congressional airing of the Admiral Brownson incident.

Walton's Plan. Representative Walton of New York offered a resolution today asking the house committee on foreign affairs to inquire into the "expediency of the resignation of the president to intercede with the government of Russia for the liberation of members of the Russian duma now in prison and tender them the United States as an asylum."

To Remedy Law.

Senator Knox today introduced a bill to remedy the defects in the employer's liability act which was declared unconstitutional yesterday.

Ballinger Resigns.

The resignation of Richard A. Ballinger, commissioner of the general land office, has been accepted by the President and Fred Denton, the assistant commissioner, has been appointed commissioner.

Names Godfrey.

The President today sent to the Senate the nomination of George L. Godfrey to be surveyor of the customshouse port of Des Moines.

Donounces President.

A severe denunciation was heaped upon President Roosevelt in the house of representatives today by Willett of New York, who in the course of his remarks on the financial question charged the President with not being a sensible man and with having characterized the heads of great industrial institutions as dishonest, thereby bringing on the present condition, and lack of confidence among the people and ultimately panic.

FIELD TRIALS IN LONE STAR STATE

TRUE BILL VOTED IN GROSSCUP CASE

Lone Star Field Trials Club Holds Annual Meet on Ranch Near San Antonio.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 7.—A sportman-like atmosphere pervaded this vicinity today as it was the opening day of the annual meet of the Lone Star Field Trials Club. The events take place on the Nix ranch, about six miles from San Antonio. Sportmen from Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, Illinois, Indiana, New Mexico and Texas are here with their handsome pointers and setters, and many of the dogs entered have a national reputation. The judges for the running are Dr. F. M. Rogers of New Albany, Texas, and Curtis Wright of Carthage, Mo.

The program of the meeting covers three days. The principal events are as follows:

Derby Stake, for setters and pointers who have not won first in any field trial prior to Jan. 1, 1907. Purse $100.

All-Age Stake, for setters and pointers who have not won first in any field trial prior to Jan. 1, 1907. Purse $100.

Lone Star Champion Stake, for setters and pointers and open only to dogs that have won a place in competition in field trials. Purse $50 per cent of entrance fees and trophy cup.

Brace Stake, open to members. Purse 25 per cent of entrance fees and trophy cup.

TOBACCO RAISERS TO HEAR J. B. FOOT

Hon. Joel B. Foot of Tennessee Will Address Tobacco Raisers In This Vicinity This Week.

The Hon. Joel B. Foot of Tennessee will address tobacco growers of Wisconsin in various parts of the state during the next ten days. He will speak here on Saturday the 11th at 2 o'clock. In the afternoon, in the Assembly room in the city hall, other meetings near here will be held at Edgerton the 10th, at Stoughton on the 9th and at Oconomowoc on the 11th in the evening.

Mr. Foot will address tobacco growers in behalf of the Tobacco Growers' Section of the America Society of Equity, and all tobacco growers in this vicinity are requested to attend these meetings if possible.

JUDGE GROSSCUP connection with the fatal wreck on the Interurban line in which he is a stockholder on August 30. The indictment comes as a surprise as it was thought a financial settlement had been reached.

GIVEN FIVE YEARS FOR HER MAD ACT

When Officers Found Him Creating a Disturbance in Jackman Block at 4 O'Clock This Morning.

Something during the night William Bundy, a bold moulder who was tarrying for the evening in Janesville, absorbed more than his share of red-eyes as was good for him and headed into the Jackman block. The officers found him about 4 a. m., dividing his time between molesting the telephone operators and wandering about the corridors on the third floor. He was not led away without a struggle and is nursing a scapulite today as the result of his ill-considered resistance. That he received exactly what was coming to him is his frank admission. It is not likely that he will be taken into court.

BUNDY BUNDLED OFF TO LOCK-UP

Woman Who Tried to Kill Her Husband Sent to State Prison This Morning.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Oshkosh, Wis., Jan. 7.—In the municipal court this morning Mrs. Martin Thummert was sentenced to five years at hard labor in Waupaca for attempting to kill her divorced husband, Fred Thummert, on November 18, 1907, at the home of Mr. Thummert in the town of Oshkosh. When sentence was read Mrs. Thummert became hysterical and a nurse was called and she was removed to the county jail. She had been tried since first taken into custody. The scene in court was very pathetic.

WINTER POLITICAL SPORTS IN THE WHITE HOUSE YARD.

Taft is busy building up his boom—News Room.

SEVERAL THOUSAND GATHER IN MEMPHIS

Annual Meeting of National Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union Begun Today.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 7.—What is probably the largest and most representative gathering of cotton planters ever held assembled in this city today at the opening of the annual meeting of the National Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union. The delegates present at the opening numbered several thousand and represented every state of the South, from Virginia to Texas and from Missouri to Florida. The states particularly well represented were Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and New Mexico.

The opening address is to be delivered by Bishop Brott, of the Philippines. Other eminent churchmen who are to take part in the proceedings include Bishop Garratt of Dallas, Bishop Johnson of West Texas, Bishop Tuttle of Missouri, Bishop Sessions of Louisiana, Bishop Kendrich of New Mexico, Bishop Brown of Arkansas, Bishop Khovaly of Texas, Rev. Rev. B. Warner of New Orleans, Rev. W. R. McPherson of Fort Smith, Rev. A. W. Gordan of San Antonio, and John Wood, of New York, corresponding secretary of the board of missions.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price. Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to a level that will enable the organization to maintain in the future a 15-cent price.

Reports will be presented showing that in some states the farmers have already arranged to engage in a diversification of crops to a greater extent than ever before. With the aid of the numerous co-operative warehouses already established the union leaders are confident that the campaign for 15-cent cotton will be successful.

The chief business of the convention, however, will be to decide upon plans for reducing the cotton acreage and taking other steps calculated to keep down the production to

LINK AND PIN
PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

Thos. S. Nolan, H. W. Adams,
C. W. Reeder,
NOLAN, ADAMS & REEDER
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
811-813 Jackman Bldg., Janesville, Wis.
306-308 Goodwin Building, Beloit, Wis.

E. D. McGOWAN,
A. M. FISHER,
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS
300-310 Jackman Bldg.,
Janesville, Wis. New Phone, 163.

DR. FREDERICK C. LINDSTROM
OSTEOPATH
Suite 222-23 Hayes Block,
Rock Co. phone 120, Wm. phone 2114,
Janesville, Wis.
Licensed by Wisconsin Board of Medical Examiners.

HILTON & SADLER

THE ARCHITECTS
Have had years of experience.
Call and see them.
OFFICE ON THE BRIDGE,
Janesville, Wis., Rock Co. phone 823.

Dr. T. F. Kennedy
DENTIST

CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK A SPECIALTY.
Tallman Block, over Baugher Drug Co.

W. H. BLAIR ARCHITECT.

Room 5, Phoenix Block, Janesville.
Edwin F. Carpenter, Henry F. Carpenter

CARPENTER & CARPENTER LAWYERS

Carpenter Block, Janesville, Wis.
New Phone 575.

E. F. DUNWIDDIE & WHEELER
Attorneys and Counselors.
Janesville, Wis.

12-18 W. Milwaukee St.

J. J. CUNNINGHAM LAWYER
No. 215 Hayes Block
JANESEVILLE • • • WISCONSIN

Route 20.
The Man With A Millstone
About His Neck

The millstone's lack of special training, it holds one man down to hard work and small wages while others, properly trained, go ahead. But every man and woman who is laboring under such a burden can easily rise to a better position and increased earnings and can find out how for the asking.

To find out how, simply write the J. C. S., stating the position you wish to gain. In return, an institution with 18 years of successful experience in training thousands of others for advancement will tell you how it can fit YOU for a better paying position. No risk to run. No books to buy. Isn't such a chance for advancement worth this much to you?

International Correspondence Schools
Scranton, Pa.
James H. Peterson, local representative.
815 Milwaukee St., Janesville, Wis.

OFFICIAL NOTICE.
State and County Taxes,
Published by authority of the Common Council of the City of Janesville,
OFFICE OF CITY CLERK, JANESEVILLE,
JANUARY 7, 1908.

To Whom It May Concern:
The Tax Bills and warrant for the collection of the state and county taxes for the year 1907 are now in my hands for collection, and all persons interested are requested to pay the same in the office of the city treasurer in the city of Janesville, or the same will be collected at the cost and expense to the person liable for the payment of said taxes.

CHARLES A. FATHERM
Treasurer City of Janesville, Janesville, Wis.

manuscripted

"TRIM" BRIDGE ON CENTER AVE.

THAT IS WHAT CITY FATHERS
WANT C. & N. W. TO BUILD.

HENRY ROGERS SUPERVISOR

Named to Fill Vacancy Caused by Resignation of H. L. Skavlem—
City Co. Wants a Road Vacated.

During over an hour's recess last evening the common council discussed behind closed doors the apportionment of the cost of the Five Points sewer between the First and Fifth ward funds, and the $200 damage claim of Mrs. J. T. Neeland for grading work is $65.25 and Attorney F. C. Harpon represented her interests before the City Fathers. No action with regard to either of these matters was taken in open session. An order introduced by Ald. Sheldon instructing the city clerk to draw on the treasurer for the sum of $12.50, payable to the latter official from the general fund, for the state and county taxes charged against the Mercy hospital, was withdrawn pending a decision by City Atty. Maxfield as to whether or not the power lies with the council or the county board to annul assessments of this character.

Question of Vacating a Street.
Henry C. and Samuel Tall and Claus Atwood of the City Ice Co. filed a petition asking the city to vacate a short street running from N. Main street to the river between their ice houses on lots 17 and 18 of the Pixley & Shaw addition. By virtue of an order introduced by Chairman Shurman of the highway's committee and passed the city clerk was instructed to have the grading notices published for a hearing on this matter at the regular meeting of the council on the 20th of January.

Henry Rogers Named Supervisor.
Several scores of Second ward electors of both political parties filed a petition asking that Henry Rogers be named as supervisor from that district, Ald. Buchholz nominated Mr. Rogers for the unexpired term and moved that the clerk cast the ballot. The motion was carried and the candidate duly elected. The municipal court report for December showed that court fees amounting to $15.75, fine aggregating $67, and city marshal's fees of $10 had been collected. Reports for the same month were received from the city treasurer and board of education, and the financial committee's customary report on bills was presented and approved.

Railroad Bridge Discussion.
Considerable animated discussion followed the introduction by Ald. Sheridan of an order instructing the C. & N. W. Ry. Co. to replace with six months the wagon-bridge over its Center avenue tracks, between Second and Sutherland streets, with a steel structure that will connect the traveled portion of the highway in a straight line. According to the sponsor of the order the railroad company agreed to do this when given permission to close the street last summer, but is now preparing to "put it in crooked" again. This is surprised from the manner in which the abutments are being constructed and the drawings sent to City Engineer Korch which seem to show that the gap is to be spanned neither according to the old flag nor in a straight line, the north end being moved six or eight feet nearer a correct and satisfactory line. This alleged compromise is to be made, so it is claimed, because the street and railway lines intersect at such an acute angle that a much longer structure would have to be built if the highway were to be spanned in a trim and ship-shape manner. Ald. Buchholz called attention to the fact that some of the engineers and other officials were to be here Friday and asked that action be delayed until a consultation could be had with them with regard to their purposes. Ald. Merritt asked the city attorney if the company could be enjoined in case it started to build according to plans apparently unsatisfactory to the city and was informed that such action could be taken. Ald. Jones moved that the matter be laid on the table until the next meeting. Five voted "aye" on this latter question and five voted "no," and Mayor Hoddle cast the deciding vote in favor of laying the matter over, explaining his action with the statement that six months was plenty of time in any event and that it seemed only fair to hear what the railroad engineer had to say before taking the proposed action.

HENRY C. DONNELLY DIED AT JOLIET, ILL.

On Saturday and His Daughters, Mrs. Anna McNeil and Miss Adda Donnelly Left For That City Sunday.

Sad tidings reached Mrs. Anna McNeil and Miss Adda Donnelly Saturday evening of the sudden death at Joliet, Ill., of their father, Henry Clay Donnelly. Although nearing his eightieth milestone, he had never known a sick day in his life and he was stricken while riding in the country with a friend. Mrs. McNeil and Miss Donnelly departed for Joliet Sunday morning. The funeral is to be held in Kansas City on Tuesday. Miss Donnelly expects to remain there for perhaps two months but Mrs. McNeil will return to Janesville either this evening or sometime tomorrow.

STOCK CO. OPENED TO A LARGE HOUSE

Grace Hayward and Her Excellent Supporting Cast Pleased Patrons of Myers Theatre Last Night.

Grace Hayward and her large supporting company opened a week's engagement before a crowded house at the Myers theatre last evening with a five-act comedy-drama by Owen Davis entitled "The Confessions of a Wife." The rather trying role of "the wife" was enacted with great success by the star and her support, including Louis Dean, R. B. Lofton, Milti DeVore, Roma Louis, Vera De Vere, and others was highly satisfactory. There were six between-the-acts vaudeville numbers and the work of De Vere and De Vere and the whimsical monologue and dancing of Lew Welsh proved especially pleasing. "The Motorist's Wife" is the bill for this evening.

MOONLIGHT CLUB TO HEAR C. V. HIBBARD

Moonlight Club of Afton Will Meet on Friday Next to Hear Him Speak on Japan.

Afton, Jan. 7.—A general rearrangement of dates, for concluding events here, in Afton, is necessary at this time, by reason of the fact that the regular monthly meeting of the Moonlight club will be held on Friday evening of this week, instead of Tuesday evening of next week, as originally planned. This change is made in order to accommodate the chief speaker of the evening—C. V. Hibbard, who will speak on Japan and its wonderful people. The Royal Americans meeting, which was to have been held at the home of President Denoyer on Friday evening, will be held Friday evening of next week.

The regular meeting of the literary society, originally slated for next Thursday evening at the T. J. Oakley home, will be held Tuesday evening of this week, instead of Wednesday evening of next week, as originally planned. This change is made in order to accommodate the chief speaker of the evening—C. V. Hibbard, who will speak on Japan and its wonderful people. The Royal Americans meeting, which was to have been held at the home of President Denoyer on Friday evening, will be held Friday evening of next week.

At the annual meeting of the Citizens association held Thursday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: N. W. Crossley, president; E. D. Bills, vice-president; F. T. Coon, secretary; W. B. Maxson, treasurer; J. G. Carr, F. C. Dunn, and F. H. Gifford, directors.

The Milton Poultry association will hold an exhibition here Feb. 18-19-20 and the well-known fancier, E. G. Roberts of Fort Atkinson, will judge the birds.

A. A. Crandall of the Dunn, Ross Co. force has been sick and off duty.

Mr. J. B. Norton of Oscceola, Minn., arrived in the village Friday to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Duhard.

Asst. State Superintendent J. B. Borden of Madison spent Saturday in the village.

Miss Mayme Jones of Janesville visited her grandmother, Mrs. G. C. Reynolds, Saturday.

Miss Grace Spaulding of Edgerton spent Saturday with her parents in this village.

Dr. C. E. Perry returned from his trip to Nortonville, Kas., and Hammond, La., Saturday evening.

Prof. H. T. Jackson returned to his school work at Waukegan, Ill., Sunday.

F. G. Dorden transacted business in Chicago this week.

Mrs. C. H. Holl and daughter, Miss Nellie, left Sunday for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

Lester T. Hill is a grip victim.

C. E. Crandall made a business trip to Milwaukee Monday.

Miss M. A. Flaville Jr. continued to the house with an attack of grip.

Jay Spofford and wife of Rockford, Ill., were here Monday.

Regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors will be held next Thursday.

John C. Eddy was reelected as trustee of the Baptist church for a term of three years last Sunday, W. G. White was reelected church clerk.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of W. J. Miller on Wednesday of this week.

FARM-HAND'S SUIT TO RECOVER WAGES

Which W. C. Weirick Witheld Because of Alleged Breach of Contract, Was Won by Walter Monogue in Judge Tallman's Court.

In Judge Tallman's court yesterday afternoon a jury consisting of Charles Clark, William Sulsky, Edward Schindler, William Sager, A. E. McGuire, and Charles Hurn, returned a verdict of $76.40 and costs, amounting in all to $99.16, for the plaintiff in the case of Walter Monogue vs. W. C. Weirick. The plaintiff worked on the defendant's farm two miles north of Beloit under contract, so the defendant claimed, for one year. Mr. Weirick paid him in part but withheld a portion of the wages, as a guarantee of the fulfillment of the contract. When, as the latter alleges, the plaintiff left him during the busy harvest season, he refused to turn over the balance due Monogue on account.

Atty. J. J. Cunningham represented the plaintiff and Atty. Louis Avery, the defendant. The latter has taken an appeal to circuit court.

FOUR CARS JUMP THE TRACK NEAR GRATIOT

Freight Train 92 Has Wreck Yesterday About Noon Between Gratiot and Calamino.

For some unknown reason four boxcars in train 92 on the St. Paul road jumped the track yesterday between Gratiot and Calamino about noon.

One of the cars was filled with buter-ter and eggs and strange as it may seem nothing was broken. The rest of the train came on in and the wrecking outfit was sent back to the scene of the accident. It returned again this morning with engine 510,

Englebrecht Meyer and Fireman Whalen.

Perfectly Truthful.

"I really don't believe that you particularly wanted to hear me sing," said a young lady coyly. "I did, indeed," her admirer protested. "I had never heard you before,"—Pete Mc-

Up.

Serve No Salt or Wine.

In some Italian vegetarian restaurants, for some mysterious reasons, salt and wine are taboo.

Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

He Didn't Care.

Little Jim Jones read his composition in school. It was so poor that the teacher declared she would have to write a note to Jim's mother about it. "Go ahead and write 'er, or you wants to, I don't care. Mother wrote it herself."

He Didn't Care.

Mr. H. D. Dabbs, M. D., in Fry's Magazine.

The Result of Modern Education.

I am not afraid of a race of fools.

I am afraid of a race of rickety human encyclopedists, who are a nuisance to everyone and a health drawback.

G. H. Dabbs, M. D., in Fry's Magazine.

Little Deeds Important.

It is sometimes good to be content with doing little; the great and splen-dorous occasions in which a man can benefit his country are few; the humble duties by which his benefit may be advanced are of daily occurrence.

Gazette Want Ads Are Read

Nothing is so hard to do as it seems beforehand—unless it is done in the wrong way, when it is harder. For example, to sell that piece of property quickly without advertising it would be harder than it seems.

3 Lines 3 Times 25c

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Gazette, Jan. 7, 1868.—The weather from 7 to 9 o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 5 degrees below zero. This afternoon at four o'clock it indicated five degrees above.

Big Skating Rink.—The whole of Rock Prairie, and region round about, was covered yesterday and today, with a coating of ice. The skating was good all about, in the fields and in the streets.

Paid Up.—By a resolution of the Board of Supervisors, passed this morning, the county treasurer, Mr. H. H. Goldredge, was authorized to settle with Mr. Goldredge, who paid up the full amount of the deficiency, principal and interest—something over $5,000. We understand that Mr. Goldredge expressed himself as anxious to rectify any errors that may hereafter be found.

Lecture.—The lecture by Mr. Millburn, last evening, before the Young Men's Association was the fifth of the course. The subject was "English Roast Beef or More of What a Blind Man Saw." The lecture was very interesting, one of the best in the course. Owing to the low and dangerous condition of the streets, there was but a slim audience. Had it not been for this untoward circumstance, we have no doubt there would have been a full house.

The next lecture will be delivered by John B. Gough, Tuesday evening the 14th, Subject, "London by Night."

Omaha.—The stage coming from Sioux City on Saturday night was stopped by highwaymen within two miles of this city. Two passengers and the driver were robbed of five hundred dollars. The passengers were unharmed.

Denver.—Valley Station, 138 miles east of Denver, on the stage route to Julesburg, was burned by a band of thirty Indians, who afterward claimed some ranchmen severely.

Inauguration.—The State officers were inaugurated on Monday. They met at the Executive Office and were sworn into office by Chief Justice Dixon. The only new office is the State Superintendent of Schools, A. J. Craig.

Congress.—Both Houses reassembled on Monday. In the House a resolution complimenting Gen. Hancock was tabled and a resolution adopted condemning the president for the removal of General Sheridan. A resolution was offered looking to a consolidation of the military districts. Nothing special transpired in the Senate.

Our navy, buying annually three submarine boats and two torpedo boat destroyers, will be manned as far as possible, by Australians. These vessels will be entirely controlled by Australian except in time of war, when they will be placed under the British admiral commanding the Australian station.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN WAS BURIED SUNDAY

Funeral Services Over the Late Thomas Rylatt Held Last Sunday

Afternoon at Evansville,

Evansville.—Jan. 6.—The church of Evansville will observe the annual week of prayer by holding a series of union services. Following is the order of the services and the places of holding the meetings: Tuesday evening, Jan. 7, at the Baptist church, led by Rev. D. Q. Grable, subject—The Unseen and Eternal; Wednesday evening, at the Methodist church, led by Mrs. A. H. Parry, subject—The Church Made Truly Glorious; Thursday evening, at Free Baptist church, led by Rev. T. W. North, subject—Home and Foreign Missions; Friday evening, at the Seminary, evangelistic service; Saturday evening at Congregational church, led by Rev. J. L. Webster, subject—Christian Unity. Everyone is cordially invited.

The funeral of Thomas Rylatt, an old veteran of the civil war, took place in the First Baptist church in this city Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. Bender of Ruthland, who was a comrade in the same regiment to which Mr. Rylatt belonged. Mr. Rylatt was born in England in 1821 and about fifty years ago came to Wisconsin, where he has spent the greater part of his life. He was a member of the G. A. R. T. L. S. Post No. 41, and the members attended the funeral in a body. The pallbearers were J. H. West, John Tullar, Henry Hamilton, H. A. Babcock, A. B. Graves and William Burke, who tenderly laid the remains at rest in the family lot in Maple Hill cemetery.

Mrs. George Cramer, aged fifty years, passed away at eight-thirty o'clock Saturday evening at the home of her father, Asaph Allen, on Jug Prairie. She has been in ill-health for about two years, having been a sufferer from paralysis. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Nellie Cramer, one sister, Mrs. Rose Lamb of Evansville, a brother, Ethan Allen of Jug Prairie, and her father. Funeral services will be held from the residence of her father at one-thirty o'clock today, Rev. D. Q. Grable officiating. Interment will be made in the Prairie cemetery.

The former schoolmates and friends of Jay Stark will doubtless be glad to hear of the success which has been his since going to Carencun, California. He has recently been made superintendent of the Western Union Oil company with a salary of one hundred and seventy-two dollars a month with the opportunity of advancement. This position has been gained, after four years of faithful service with the corporation and two or three previous promotions.

At the annual election of the afternoon club held last Saturday the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. May Evans; Vice Pres., Mrs. Minnie Hubbard; Secy., Mrs. Edna Patterson; treasurer, Mrs. Everett Van Patten; executive board, Mrs. T. G. Richardson, chairman; associate members, Mrs. Charles Webb, Mrs. Albert Sunshall and Mrs. O. C. Colony.

Mrs. Harry Blakeley entertained Friday afternoon for her niece, Miss Abby Schroeder of Marshall, Minn.

Edgar Smith will leave tomorrow for a two weeks' business trip to Texas. During his absence Mrs. Smith will visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Tuttle, in Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Fisher entertained about twenty guests at a dinner party last Saturday evening with Mrs. Leon Patterson of Green Bay and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Black Bass, N. D., as guests of honor. The party was a reunion of a whist club which existed here a number of years ago and was a very happy affair.

William H. Austin has recently been appointed as janitor of the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Friends here have been notified of the death of Barney Reilly which occurred at his home in Porter Sunday evening at six o'clock. He was in his eighty-seventh year and death was due to weakness attending old age. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock from the Catholic church in Edgerton.

Prof. A. H. Shultz spent Friday at his farm home in Oregon.

Mrs. Lizzie Antes of Rockford was an over-Sunday guest at the home of her brother, R. M. Antes, and family.

Mrs. Jessie Kingdon had the misfortune to sprain her ankle while playing a practice game of basketball in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. A. E. Durmer, who has been very ill for several days, is reported much better today. Miss Edith Lockwood, a trained nurse of Elgerton, is here caring for her.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Richardson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cummings of Beloit over Sunday.

D. Kuusisto returned Thursday evening from a few days' visit with relatives in Ohio.

The Royal Neighbors will hold their next coffee at the home of Mrs. Clyde Courtier on Friday afternoon of this week.

Mrs. Fleck of Brothhead spent Saturday at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. E. Durmer.

On Friday evening Mrs. Will Blakeley entertained a number of young ladies in honor of the Misses Adelie Blakeley and Avis Bullard, who left this morning to resume their school duties at Stevens Point.

Miss Lucy Hopkins, who has been visiting relatives and friends here for the past two weeks, returned to her home in Delavan today.

Mrs. John Miller is confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tracy of Atchison spent Saturday in Evansville.

The Misses Basile and Blanche Jenkins gave a party to a number of their friends last Thursday evening.

About forty friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. Park unexpectedly walked in upon them Tuesday evening and gave them a very pleasant surprise. They came to help them celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage.

and the occasion was much enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Antes is rapidly recovering from his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John Litzler moved Saturday into the house owned by the E. Park estate on Second street.

William Douglas and family returned Thursday from Poynter, where they have been visiting relatives.

We Tell

Year's Non-Alcoholic Cherry Pectoral
Each tablet contains 100 Grs. of the power of 5 Grs.
Wild Cherry, 60 Grs. Grindelia Robusta, 4 Grs. Sassafras, 2 Grs.
White Pine, 100 Grs. Sassafras, 100 Grs. Sassafras, 100 Grs.
Burdock, 100 Grs. Sassafras, 100 Grs. Sassafras, 100 Grs.
Lavender, 100 Grs. Sassafras, 100 Grs. Sassafras, 100 Grs.
We have no secret. We publish the formula of our medicine.

W. D. Ayers, Lowell, Mass.

THE RACKET

163 West Milwaukee Street

A LARGE LINE OF HANDKERCHIEFS

Ladies' Handkerchiefs, pure white, double hemstitched borders. A very pretty showing in this small kerchief and will sell readily at the price.

5c each, 6 for 25c.

Men's Handkerchiefs, pure white, plain hem and hemstitched border, some excellent qualities and just the time to supply the men, at 5c each.

Hemstitched ladies' sizes Handkerchiefs, some real novel designs and excellent workmanship. Cross corner hemstitching, something novel and make a very pretty handkerchief for every-day service.

10c each, 3 for 25c.

Ladies' medium sized Handkerchiefs. Embroidered and lace designs, made of good, serviceable material, cornered embroidered floral designs and extra wide lace border—pure white and always nice to have on hand, at 10c each.

This offering for Wednesday only. We have a good stock and feel than we can supply all, but better call early.

MODERN IMPROVEMENT

ELECTRIC LIGHT

when properly installed is absolutely safe from fire. There can be no leaks, no explosions, no danger to children from scratching matches.

Electric light is convenient and clean, requires no care and is always ready to burn instantly without needing a new mantel, trimming, or the like.

Now is a good time to have your house wired at a low figure.

Our special wiring offer is worth looking into.

WRITE, PRONE OR CALL.

JANESEVILLE ELECTRIC CO.

Rock County, 281.

Wisconsin, 161.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Gazette, Jan. 7, 1868.—The weather from 7 to 9 o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 5 degrees below zero. This afternoon at four o'clock it indicated five degrees above.

Big Skating Rink.—The whole of Rock Prairie, and region round about, was covered yesterday and today, with a coating of ice. The skating was good all about, in the fields and in the streets.

Paid Up.—By a resolution of the Board of Supervisors, passed this morning, the county treasurer, Mr. H. H. Goldredge, was authorized to settle with Mr. Goldredge, who paid up the full amount of the deficiency, principal and interest—something over $5,000. We understand that Mr. Goldredge expressed himself as anxious to rectify any errors that may hereafter be found.

Lecture.—The lecture by Mr. Millburn, last evening, before the Young Men's Association was the fifth of the course. The subject was "English Roast Beef or More of What a Blind Man Saw." The lecture was very interesting, one of the best in the course. Owing to the low and dangerous condition of the streets, there was but a slim audience. Had it not been for this untoward circumstance, we have no doubt there would have been a full house.

The next lecture will be delivered by John B. Gough, Tuesday evening the 14th, Subject, "London by Night."

Omaha.—The stage coming from Sioux City on Saturday night was stopped by highwaymen within two miles of this city. Two passengers and the driver were robbed of five hundred dollars. The passengers were unharmed.

Denver.—Valley Station, 138 miles east of Denver, on the stage route to Julesburg, was burned by a band of thirty Indians, who afterward claimed some ranchmen severely.

Inauguration.—The State officers were inaugurated on Monday. They met at the Executive Office and were sworn into office by Chief Justice Dixon. The only new office is the State Superintendent of Schools, A. J. Craig.

Congress.—Both Houses reassembled on Monday. In the House a resolution complimenting Gen. Hancock was tabled and a resolution adopted condemning the president for the removal of General Sheridan. A resolution was offered looking to a consolidation of the military districts. Nothing special transpired in the Senate.

Our navy, buying annually three submarine boats and two torpedo boat destroyers, will be manned as far as possible, by Australians. These vessels will be entirely controlled by Australian except in time of war, when they will be placed under the British admiral commanding the Australian station.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN WAS BURIED SUNDAY

Funeral Services Over the Late Thomas Rylatt Held Last Sunday

Afternoon at Evansville,

Evansville.—Jan. 6.—The church of Evansville will observe the annual week of prayer by holding a series of union services. Following is the order of the services and the places of holding the meetings: Tuesday evening, Jan. 7, at the Baptist church, led by Rev. D. Q. Grable, subject—The Unseen and Eternal; Wednesday evening, at the Methodist church, led by Mrs. A. H. Parry, subject—The Church Made Truly Glorious; Thursday evening, at Free Baptist church, led by Rev. T. W. North, subject—Home and Foreign Missions; Friday evening, at the Seminary, evangelistic service; Saturday evening at Congregational church, led by Rev. J. L. Webster, subject—Christian Unity. Everyone is cordially invited.

The funeral of Thomas Rylatt, an old veteran of the civil war, took place in the First Baptist church in this city Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. Bender of Ruthland, who was a comrade in the same regiment to which Mr. Rylatt belonged. Mr. Rylatt was born in England in 1821 and about fifty years ago came to Wisconsin, where he has spent the greater part of his life. He was a member of the G. A. R. T. L. S. Post No. 41, and the members attended the funeral in a body. The pallbearers were J. H. West, John Tullar, Henry Hamilton, H. A. Babcock, A. B. Graves and William Burke, who tenderly laid the remains at rest in the family lot in Maple Hill cemetery.

Mrs. George Cramer, aged fifty years, passed away at eight-thirty o'clock Saturday evening at the home of her father, Asaph Allen, on Jug Prairie. She has been in ill-health for about two years, having been a sufferer from paralysis. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Nellie Cramer, one sister, Mrs. Rose Lamb of Evansville, a brother, Ethan Allen of Jug Prairie, and her father. Funeral services will be held from the residence of her father at one-thirty o'clock today, Rev. D. Q. Grable officiating. Interment will be made in the Prairie cemetery.

The former schoolmates and friends of Jay Stark will doubtless be glad to hear of the success which has been his since going to Carencun, California. He has recently been made superintendent of the Western Union Oil company with a salary of one hundred and seventy-two dollars a month with the opportunity of advancement. This position has been gained, after four years of faithful service with the corporation and two or three previous promotions.

At the annual election of the afternoon club held last Saturday the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. May Evans; Vice Pres., Mrs. Minnie Hubbard; Secy., Mrs. Edna Patterson; treasurer, Mrs. Everett Van Patten; executive board, Mrs. T. G. Richardson, chairman; associate members, Mrs. Charles Webb, Mrs. Albert Sunshall and Mrs. O. C. Colony.

Mrs. Harry Blakeley entertained Friday afternoon for her niece, Miss Abby Schroeder of Marshall, Minn.

Edgar Smith will leave tomorrow for a two weeks' business trip to Texas. During his absence Mrs. Smith will visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Tuttle, in Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Fisher entertained about twenty guests at a dinner party last Saturday evening with Mrs. Leon Patterson of Green Bay and Mrs. Clifford Smith of Black Bass, N. D., as guests of honor. The party was a reunion of a whist club which existed here a number of years ago and was a very happy affair.

William H. Austin has recently been appointed as janitor of the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Friends here have been notified of the death of Barney Reilly which occurred at his home in Porter Sunday evening at six o'clock. He was in his eighty-seventh year and death was due to weakness attending old age. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock from the Catholic church in Edgerton.

Prof. A. H. Shultz spent Friday at his farm home in Oregon.

Mrs. Lizzie Antes of Rockford was an over-Sunday guest at the home of her brother, R. M. Antes, and family.

Mrs. Jessie Kingdon had the misfortune to sprain her ankle while playing a practice game of basketball in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. A. E. Durmer, who has been very ill for several days, is reported much better today. Miss Edith Lockwood, a trained nurse of Elgerton, is here caring for her.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Richardson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cummings of Beloit over Sunday.

D. Kuusisto returned Thursday evening

The Janesville Gazette

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN
SATURDAY EVENINGS.ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESEVILLE, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATERIAL.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Daily Edition—By Carrier. $0.00
One Month $0.00
One Year, cash in advance $0.00
Six Months, cash in advance $0.00

CASH IN ADVANCE.

WEEKLY EDITION—One Year, $1.00

Long Distance Telephone, No. 71, 77-3

Business Office 77-2

Job Room 77-1

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Generally fair tonight and Wednesday except snow near Lake Superior, probably cooler Wednesday afternoon.

GAZETTE DECEMBER CIRCULATION.

Sworn circulation statement of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Gazette for December, 1907.

DAILY.

Days.	Copies	Days.	Copies
1.	3917	2.	3918
3.	3915	4.	3918
5.	3907	6.	3922
7.	3904	8.	3964
9.	3907	10.	3922
11.	3908	12.	3928
13.	3910	14.	3928
15.	3912	16.	3907
Total for month.	98,473	Total for month.	98,473
98,473 divided by 25, total number of issues.	3,938	98,473 divided by 25, total number of issues.	3,938

SEMI-WEEKLY.

Copies

Days.	Copies
1.	2286
2.	2283
3.	2277
4.	2288
5.	2282
6.	2291
7.	2282
8.	2281
9.	2282
10.	2282
11.	2282
12.	2282
13.	2282
14.	2282
15.	2282
16.	2282
Total for month.	18,286
18,286 divided by 8, total number of issues.	2,285

Semi-Weekly average.

11. H. BLISS.

Business Mgr.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of January, 1908.

JENNIE L. KENDALL.

(Seal) Notary Public.

My commission expires Feb 11, 1911.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THIS?

"No laboring man can receive a cup of coffee and a bun from the hand of a capitalist without stultifying himself," declared Mother Jones. "It is more honorable to starve, if you have not the moral courage to take what belongs to you, than to become a puppy whining for a bone from the men who have stolen your opportunity to eat meat."

"When times get hard because the money, or master, class want to let up on exploiting human flesh, they laboring people who have been creating the wealth must get in the like a lot of cattle and receive rations from the hand that has robbed you."

Mother Jones, Chicago agent of the Western Federation of Miners, delivered this speech before an audience of 500 socialists and anarchists, in a La Salle street hall, the other day, when news was received that Pettibone of Idaho fame, had been acquitted.

This is the sort of damnable doctrine that causes freedom of speech to seem like a burlesque, for it is apparent to every loyal citizen that liberty has been transformed to license and that Mother Jones is a disturber of pronounced type.

After the acquittal of Haywood, the trial of Pettibone seemed like a farce, for the state of Idaho has a code of laws peculiar to itself, but the fact remains that back of Harry Orchard's confessed crimes were the instigators and public opinion has long since rendered a verdict.

If the Western Federation of Miners has any regard for law and order, or any sort respect the organization will retire Mother Jones from active service. The people are in no mood for the kind of doctrine she preaches, however gratifying it may be to the little squad of anarchists who uphold her.

JOHNSON OF MINNESOTA

Governor John A. Johnson, known as the tall Swede from the west, cheered the hearts of conservative democracy, in New York the other day, by declaring what he stood for, and outlining what he would do, if given the opportunity. He said:

"Away with the faddists and ultra radicals. The people want men who stand for principles of sound, progressive government and not for individual fads; men who place the welfare of the nation above sectional ambition."

In referring to the platform, one upon which he, for instance, would be willing to stand, he says:

"It must be one which will appeal to the intelligent business men of the country. When I use the term business men I mean every man that has a dollar invested in making his own livelihood, whether it be $1,000 in a farm, $5,000 in a store, $10,000 in law books and a legal education, or $50,000 in a factory."

These are the men who form the business community of this nation, and it is to their intelligence that we must appeal. The democratic platform must not be framed to meet the selfish interests of any particular faction or section. It must not be made a patchwork for personal advantages nor to gratify extreme views either on the one hand or the other.

"I do not believe in legalized destruction and confiscation of property."

overnment is bound to give protection to property just as it protects human life.

"The right to enjoy property is guaranteed under the constitution, and it can be denied to no citizen. The man who has a dollar invested in a farm or factory has a right to have that equity safeguarded from the attacks of unscrupulous flanchers on the one hand and the extreme radical on the other."

"Capital in corporate form often can do business more economically and successfully than separately."

That sort of doctrine, from any source, is refreshing, in these days of revolutionary reform, and it must be humiliating to the old line Cleveland democrats to know that, this is the man who is ready to lead them, if Bryan was out of the way.

But Bryan is more than a nightmare. He is a full-fledged candidate, and back of him is a constituency ready to back him until he lands in the ditch.

The hull of the old democratic ship is so plastered with Bryan barnacles, that it has been in a sinking condition for a long time and nothing but dry dock treatment, and extensive repairs, will ever render the craft seaworthy.

From all parts of the country comes the cheering news that the banks have resumed currency payment. Statements reveal the fact that these institutions are stronger financially than ever before. Concerted action on the part of bankers saved the nation from dire disaster, and they are to be congratulated on the wisdom displayed. With nominal conditions prevailing, confidence will soon be restored, and money will return to legitimate channels.

Magazine advertising is feeling the effects of depression, and some of the January publications look as though an elephant had stepped on them. The cost of many goods thus advertised is in publicity. This is especially true of breakfast foods, where the finished products represents corn and wheat at about $8 per bushel. More than half this amount is spent in selling the goods.

The cotton growers of the south have practically cornered the crop of 1907, and are attempting to hold it for a top-notch price. Should they succeed, 12 cent cotton will rule, and manufacture goods will feel the effects. Kentucky tobacco growers are also in a quandary, and Wisconsin is attempting to follow suit. All combine are wicked, except ours, and that is a necessity.

Drygoods men complain that in spite of light buying prices continue to go up, especially in cotton fabrics. They hold the millmen responsible, and complain that under a gentleman's agreement, production is restricted. Some of the merchants advocate a dose of free trade, and argue that nothing but foreign competition will regulate the combine. The present congress is not likely to do much with the tariff.

The public is again to be regaled with another course of Harry Thaw diet. The first course became nauseating and the second will prove an emetic. Some paper suggested, the other day, that if the Thaw estate had consisted of a lapsed insurance policy, it would have been a good thing for the young man and a blessing to the country.

This is a day of shattered confidence. The blizzard is three days overdue and the reverend prognosticator is no longer regarded as reliable. When people get ready for a storm they ought to have it, for the average mortal enjoys poor health and fog more than sunshine.

From the thousands of idle freight cars, on the sidings, it would appear that the railroads of the country have been idle. Who turned the switch?

Milwaukee has a constituency which supports the rank-and-file organ, published in the west. Bad for the Cream city and no credit to the state.

There is nothing said about the "officer seeking the man." In the scramble now going on for the presidency, if modesty is a virtue, it appears to be lost in the shuffle.

Fairbanks of Indiana seems to have been slaughtered in the house of his friends, cocktails and cartoons are a bad combination.

In These Days

He who seeketh after fame has to trumpet forth his name.

He that has some goods to sell to the world the news must tell.

He that hopes to build a trade must not be afraid.

He that wants to catch the crowd has to call his wares aloud.

He that would now ventures float must induce folks to take note.

All this means, without disguise, he who wins must advertise.

The Privileges of Age.

One of the few advantages of increasing years lies in the consciousness that we shall one day be able to give advice instead of receiving it. No one would dare advise a man of 50, unless it might be his wife, in which case he would not listen to her, while the person who would think of advising a woman of 40 does not exist—Ladies' Field.

Jest and Earnest.

Many a true word is spoken in jest, but the majority of lies are uttered in dead earnest—India.

ACCUSED OF FRAUD ON GOVERNMENTPRINTING BUREAU CHEMIST AND INK MAKER INDICTED.

LATTER OF BALTIMORE

Allegations of Conspiracy and Graft
In the Supplying of Hard, Black to Uncle Sam Are Made.Washington, Jan. 7.—Allegations of fraud and graft in supplying the bureau of engraving and printing with black dry color, used in the manufacture of ink, resulted Monday in the indictment by the federal grand jury here of Edwin M. Vandycy, formerly a chemist and ink maker employed in the bureau, and Victor Bloedo, president of the Victor Bloedo company of Baltimore, manufacturers of ink and colors.Vandycy and Bloedo are charged in the indictments with conspiracy to defraud the government, the allegation being that they entered into an agreement by which Bloedo was to pay Vandycy a percentage of the money the company received from the government for the black dry color furnished to the bureau of engraving and printing.

Vandycy Passes on Samples.

Vandycy, it is alleged, in his position as chemist and ink maker of the bureau, had to pass upon the samples of the color submitted by various manufacturers. It is charged that he fraudulently favored the Baltimore company and that as a result of the conspiracy he was paid by Bloedo in the course of several years between $70,000 and $75,000.

Bloedo was to cause his company, each year, to submit bids to the bureau of engraving and printing to furnish hard black for the next ensuing fiscal year. When samples were submitted they would be referred to Vandycy as chemist and ink maker for practical test. This test, it is stated, was conducted by Vandycy and other employees of the bureau, and they would represent to the director of the bureau of engraving and printing what sample was the best and what ratings the other samples should have. A committee would then examine the various bids, together with these reports of the tests, and relying on Vandycy's reports, would recommend that the contract for the purchase of hard black be made to that bidder whose sample had been so reported to be the best.

Bloedo's Bids Accepted.

It is charged that pursuant to this conspiracy the Bloedo company submitted several bids each year from the spring of 1901 until 1906. The rating of 100 was given the Bloedo sample every year except one, when it was rated at 98, the highest mark given that year.

The indictment also charges that the contracts were each year awarded and that that company from July 1, 1901 to July 1, 1906, furnished to the bureau of engraving and printing the hard black used there, which averaged 225,000 pounds a year, at the rate of 45 cents a pound.

Attorneys for both Vandycy and Bloedo appeared before Justice Stanford and agreed to $10,000 bail. The attorneys asserted that the indictment was of a technical nature and that the alleged fraud did not involve necessarily a loss to the government.

They claimed that the bureau received the best color obtainable at a price on cents less per pound than it had paid prior to the making of contracts with the Bloedo company.

Dr. A. R. Hill Succeeds Jesse.

St. Louis, Jan. 7.—A. Ross Hill, dean of the college of arts and sciences and a director of the school of education at Cornell university, was chosen president of the University of Missouri to succeed Richard H. Jesse.

MAYER AIDS PROHIBITION

MAIL CARRYING CONTRACTORS NOT TO TRANSPORT LIQUORS.Order Will Take Effect in Southern States July 1 and in Many Sections at Once.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Postmaster General Moyer has issued an order which has a direct bearing upon the prohibition movement. The order is as follows:

"It is hereby ordered that it shall be a condition of any contract hereafter entered into for carrying the mails upon star, screen wagon, messenger or special service route, that the contractor carrier shall not transport intoxicating liquor from one point to another upon such route while in the performance of mail service."

The bids for star route service in what is known as the second section, comprising North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee and Kentucky, will be opened Wednesday and a consequence beginning on July 1 next every contractor in the states mentioned will be prohibited from carrying intoxicating liquors on his route.

The order will become effective at once, however, in many sections of the country where it is necessary to install now and supplementary service. It is believed that this order will have a far-reaching effect and will meet the approval of a large number of people, judging by the enormous number of complaints that have been sent to the postmaster general.

Worthy Prayer.

Though I am poor, send me to carry some gift to those who are poorer, some cheer to those who are longer ill, and light thou my Christmas candle at the gladness of an innocent and grateful heart.—Henry Van Dyke.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Best is not too good for you, that's why you should use only Bath Soda Cream and Face Powder.

Roy D. Curier. Roy D. Curier.

"Sure to Please."

CURLER BROS.

459 Western Ave.

HOME DRESSED PORK.

Clean, sweet and tasty!

Now phone, 1008 blk. Old phone, 3462.

UNIQUE

163 West Milwaukee St.

Program changes Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

TODAY—A Seaside Girl. A Street

Finker.

HORSE INTERFERE?

I make a specialty of shoeing that kind of horses.

Try me.

WM. F. KUHLOW.

Scientific Horsehoer,

No. 10 First St.

DELICIOUS HOT DRINKS

and sodas served tastefully

at PHILLIPS'

Hot Sodas 5c

Nut Sundaes 5c

Of Course They Said So.

"How did you happen to come to me for your Dentistry," said Dr. Richards to a patient recently.

"Why, you see I'm a stranger here," said the party, "and I thought of several people as to what Dentist to go to and they all said to Dr. Richards."

"I wanted 'Painless' work."

"Of course, I didn't want to be hurt and so I came up to you."

"Well, are you sorry you came?"

"Not a bit. You never hurt me in the least."

"It's worth something to have such a reputation for Painless Dentistry. If you need dentistry and wish perfect satisfaction try Dr. Richards."

"He 'delivers the goods'."

Offices over Hall & Sayles Jewelry store, West Milwaukee St.

ARE ADVERTISING NEXT YEAR'S SHOW

POULTRY JOURNALS STATE JANESEVILLE IS IN FIELD

MONEY IS SUBSCRIBED

Steps Already Taken to Perfect Organization—Up-to-Business Men to Endorse Move.

Preliminary work toward organizing a Janeville Poultry and Poultry Stock Association have been begun. Already several subscriptions have been promised the gentlemen who have taken the affair up and some of the will state that next year Janeville will be in line to hold the largest chicken show in the northwest.

Philip Koch, is one of the prime movers in the affair and Orville Morris Alexander, Buchanan, William McVieir, George Penhaly, Roy Person and other chicken fanciers have signified their intention of promoting the affair.

Mr. Morse said on the subject:

"There is no reason why Janeville ville birds exhibited at other shows as any city in the country. The Janeville birds exhibited at other shows always carry off prizes and there are some fine specimens in the city. Steps are being taken to hold an exhibit here next winter and it is hoped the business men will endorse the action and give financial aid."

Philip Koch who owns a fine lot of single and rose combed Rhode Island Redds with which he captures many prizes has just returned from the Ft. Atkinson show where he secured three firsts four seconds and one third and the week before was successful at the Rochelle show winning fifteen prizes is enthusiastic over the proposed plan.

"I have already written poultry papers, we are going to have a show," he said this morning. Why several of the people interested have subscrived money to start the thing along and it is up to the merchants to back it up now and we can give the people of the northwest one of the finest shows in the country. The rink is big enough for the exhibits and it would help the city wonderfully."

EDWARD B. PERRY'S LECTURE-RECITAL

On Medieval Legends See for the Pianoforte Please a Large Audience at Library Hall.

Edward Baxton Perry, of New York City, noted both as a pianist and composer and as a frequent contributor of important writings to such musical magazines as "The Etude," gave a most instructive and interesting lecture-recital of medieval legends for the pianoforte, before the Apollo club last evening. Though blind, he had none of the mannerisms peculiar to most sightless musicians and was absolutely sure in all of his wide steps. He told each legend before he played it, giving the themes and metaphors that symbolized the various characters. Gifted with a splendid technique and a fine poise understanding, he interpreted Saint-Saens'

"Danse Macabre," the Chopin ballade, the Wagner-Liszt spinning song, and Godard's "Trilby," with a breadth, a sincerity, and brilliancy seldom equaled. So, too, the dramatic fever and intensity of his rendition of the Schubert-Liszt composition found on the Black Forest legend of the Elf King. His own imaginative and exceedingly musical "Die

Lorelei," based on the Rhine legend, was also beautifully played. "The Portent," another of his compositions, was of meager content, setting forth little more than the description of a galloping horse. The next concert, which is to be by local talent, will be given on the night of Jan. 29.

Notice of Annual Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Citizens' Mutual Fire Insurance Company for the election of three directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before it, will be held in the Company's office in the City of Janeville, Wisconsin, on Monday, January 13th, at eight o'clock p. m.

GEO. A. JACOBS, Secy.

Notice of Annual Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Household Economics Club will be held at the Central hall Wednesday, Jan. 8, Roy Carter's orchestra.

Don't miss our cloaks and suits sale now on. Any lady's, Misses' or child's cloak or suit in the store at half price. T. P. Burns.

Candles fresh daily. Some exqui-ite creams for Saturday. Allie Ra-zon.

Men's furnishings, underwear, hoshoy, and shirts at special prices.

See window display. T. P. Burns.

A regular meeting of Janeville

Chapter No. 69, O. O. B., will be held at Masonic Temple tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. M. Chittenden, Sec.

Circle No. 1 will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Marston, No. 6 South

Hickory street, at 2:30 Friday afternoon.

Members of Janeville City Lodge

No. 90 will meet at West Side Old

Follows' hall Wednesday, Jan. 8, at 7:15 p. m. to visit in a body Wisconsini Lodge No. 14, I. O. F.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. J. L.

Meads, corner North High and West

Bluff streets. There is special hustle to come before the union at that time.

All Things Possible.

Nothing is Impossible to the man who can and will.—Mirabeau.

PERSONAL MENTION.

George H. Cooley, who has been visiting relatives in this city, has returned to Chicago to resume his studies in the Chicago Theological seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shattuck and children departed Sunday evening for Minneapolis.

A. E. Bingham returned Sunday from a business trip to Chicago.

J. Kempton, business manager of the Insurance News, New York, was a Janeville visitor Sunday.

William Ternan of Edgerton was in the city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Young departed today for La Crosse. They will visit in Milwaukee and Chicago before starting for Seattle, their final destination.

Ward A. Stevens was here from Evansville yesterday.

Miss Clara Louisa of Edgerton was in the city Sunday.

W. J. McNulty of Clinton was a Janeville visitor Sunday.

Carl Larson and W. J. Muhr of Stoughton were in the city Saturday night.

Arthur H. Slater, Frank Lewis, and W.H. Nelson were here from Rockford Saturday night.

Geo. E. King went to Chicago yesterday.

Miss Adeladie Evans of Evansville has been visiting Miss Constance Pember. Both left Monday for Fond du Lac, where they will resume their studies at Grafton Hall.

Miss Juliette Bostwick, returned to Monroe on Sunday, where she teaches in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daly, who formerly resided here, have welcomed a baby daughter in their Beloit home.

Frank Sheridan, who is attending school in Milwaukee, returned Monday after spending the holidays here.

E. W. Milson, wife and daughter arrived in Chicago Saturday night.

Miss Juliette Bostwick, returned to Monroe on Sunday, where she teaches in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daly, who formerly resided here, have welcomed a baby daughter in their Beloit home.

Frank Sheridan, who is attending school in Milwaukee, returned Monday after spending the holidays here.

E. W. Milson, wife and daughter

arrived in Chicago Saturday night.

Miss Juliette Bostwick, returned to Monroe on Sunday, where she teaches in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daly, who formerly resided here, have welcomed a baby daughter in their Beloit home.

Frank Sheridan, who is attending school in Milwaukee, returned Monday after spending the holidays here.

E. W. Milson, wife and daughter

arrived in Chicago Saturday night.

Miss Juliette Bostwick, returned to Monroe on Sunday, where she teaches in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daly, who formerly resided here, have welcomed a baby daughter in their Beloit home.

Frank Sheridan, who is attending school in Milwaukee, returned Monday after spending the holidays here.

E. W. Milson, wife and daughter

arrived in Chicago Saturday night.

Miss Juliette Bostwick, returned to Monroe on Sunday, where she teaches in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daly, who formerly resided here, have welcomed a baby daughter in their Beloit home.

Frank Sheridan, who is attending school in Milwaukee, returned Monday after spending the holidays here.

E. W. Milson, wife and daughter

arrived in Chicago Saturday night.

Miss Juliette Bostwick, returned to Monroe on Sunday, where she teaches in the public schools.

</

News From The Suburbs

EDGERTON

Edgerton, Jan. 6.—Mrs. John Searliff, 84, died on Friday afternoon at the farm home of her son, John Searliff, Jr., near Indian Ford. The deceased was 79 years and 10 months and leaves a son, John Searliff, and a daughter, Mrs. Geo. Wentworth, both of Edgerton, and a daughter, Mrs. Riley of Iowa. The funeral will be held at 1:30 at the house.

Judge Brown of juvenile court fame will give the third number of the lecture course on Wednesday, Jan. 8th.

The Evindorens of the Norwegian Lutheran church will meet with Mrs. Andrew Jensen in the church on Thursday, Jan. 8th.

The ladies of the Congregational church will meet in the church parlor on Wednesday afternoon.

The M. E. Ladies Aid will meet on Wednesday afternoon in the church.

Miss Lillian Richards returned on Saturday from Lake Geneva, where she passed her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Farman have moved into their new home on Catlin street.

Miss Gussie Grover returned on Sunday from Waupaca, where she passed the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Levy of Janesville were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Tauton.

Stanley Jorgenson of Madison was a local caller on Sunday.

Joel Thompson and family were guests of Fort Atkinson relatives during the week.

Miss Belle Donelson returned Sunday from a two weeks' vacation spent in Evansville.

Mr. John Lathrop is visiting relatives at Weston, Wis.

Miss Martha Wilson returned on Sunday to Baraboo after spending two weeks at her home here.

Mrs. Gilmore of Horicon is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Atwill.

R. J. Matherne was a Janesville visitor on Saturday.

Miss Inez Fitch of Chelago was a guest of her sister, Mrs. B. G. Dean, during the week.

Miss Pearl Nickerson has been confined to her home the past week.

Miss Margaret Skibrot, who has been employed at Brown & Pringle's, has taken up similar work in Stoughton since the first of the year.

Miss Hattie Short is a Beloit visitor this week.

Roy Hopkins, who underwent an operation in the Janesville hospital, is getting along nicely.

LEYDEN

Leyden, Jan. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lamb welcomed a little girl baby at their home Jan. 3d.

Mrs. Leila Nickerson has returned home after an absence of eleven weeks at Mercy hospital. She is improving nicely after her operations and her many friends wish her a happy and pleasant New Year.

There was a large attendance at the Missionary society Friday afternoon held at the home of Mrs. George Mawhinney, Jr.

J. L. Haught is visiting at Galensburg, Wis., at the home of his brother Fred, who is in very poor health at present writing.

Dr. Brown of Janesville made a professional call at P. Quigley's, Thursday morning.

Agnes Mawhinney, Fanny McKeith, and Will Lorch returned to Whitewater school after the holiday vacation. Mary and Jay Taylor are at Milton, Joe Caldo at Janesville and Leslie Caldo at Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cogswell entered the La Prairie Larkin club Thursday evening, Jan. 2d. The usual good time was indulged in at the card tables, and then dainty refreshments were served in the usual order.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hull and Mrs. James Haught visited Rock Prairie relatives last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grove Wetmore and daughters have moved to their new home at Millard.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Austin and Ray visited at George Weaver's at Millard last Thursday.

Wm. Caldo and family were Friday guests at J. W. Jones'.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGowen entertained a company of young friends Friday evening.

The tobacco in this neighborhood is all stripped and waiting for buyers to come.

Mrs. T. Cavane of Richmond is spending the week with her mother, who is ill.

WEST MAGNOLIA

West Magnolia, Jan. 6.—Quite a few oldtime friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. Dubcek took dinner with them on New Year's.

Fred Rold shipped a flock of lambs to Chicago one day last week.

Magnolia Modern Woodmen are having a fine lot of members brought into their lodge by the great effort put forth by their state deputy, Mr. Kolly. They have taken in twenty-eight in less than two weeks.

Mrs. Freda Post and Mrs. Carrie McCoy and daughter Ada called on Mrs. Cora and Hattie Harnick last week.

Cora Harnick has gone to Humorov to attend the German school.

Howard Edwards took supper at his sister's, Mrs. E. B. McCoy, Sunday afternoon.

Henry Moely returned to Evansville Sunday night to his work.

CAINVILLE

Cainville, Jan. 6.—Cainville is getting to be quite a shipping station. Several carloads of sheep have been shipped from there this fall. Last Monday Ralph Stevens of Evansville shipped two carloads of hogs and G. H. Howard one carload.

Lucius Andrews of Beloit is visiting local relatives.

The woods south of Cainville were the scene of quite a hunt on New Year's day. Two sides had been chosen, the losers were to treat the boys and their lady friends to an oyster supper held in the hall in the evening. Forty-five rabbits were shot, a jolly good time was had by all who attended.

The Mite society held a New Year's day dinner at Mrs. Alma Andrews', New Year's day.

Roy Townsend has been spending a few days at home.

Wilbur Andrews Tuesday was a business caller in Rockford Tuesday.

Lizzie Bennett returned home Saturday after caring for the sick at Wm. Doh.

Charley Bennett has been visiting his mother a few days of last week.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever

D. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

Reserve, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Beck, and every beautiful woman in the land. The secret of the success of this cream is that it has stood the test of 37 years, and is still to be used. It is properly named, "The Golden Medical Discovery," of similar name. Dr. L. A. Gouraud, the author of the discovery (a patient) has recommended it to the best of the beauties in the land, and they will use it.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream is the best harmal and skin beautifier in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Pres., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

The Fighting Chance.

... By...
ROBERT W.
CHAMBERS.

Copyright, 1908, by the Curtis Publishing Company.
Copyright, 1908, by Robert W. Chambers.

"See his brown eyes roll back at us! He wonders why we don't do something!" whispered the girl. "Look, Mr. Seward! Now his head is moving, oh, so gradually to the left!"

"The bird is moving on the ground," mused Seward. "Now the bird has stopped."

"I do wish I could see a woodcock on the ground," she breathed. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered, "just the color of the dead leaves. Do you see? Don't you see that big woodcock squinted flat, bill pointed straight out and resting on the leaves?"

After a long while she saw suddenly, and an exquisite little shock tightened her fingers on Seward's extended arm.

"Oh, the feathered miracle!" she whispered. "The wonder of its cleverness to hide like that! You look and look and stare, seeing it all the while and not knowing that you see it. Then it is there, motionless, a brown shaped shadow among shadows. The dear little thing! Mr. Seward, do you think—are you going to—"

"No, I won't shoot it."

"Thank you. Might I sit here a moment to—"

"No, I can't shoot it; watch it!"

She canted herself soundlessly among the dead leaves. To sink into place beside her, laying his gun aside.

"Rather rough on the dog," he said, with a grimace.

"I know. It is very good of you, Mr. Seward, to do this for my pleasure. Oh—! Do you see? Oh, the little beauty!"

The woodcock had risen, plumage puffed out, strutting with wings spread and tail spread, facing the dog. The sudden pygmy defiance thrilled her. "Brave, brave!" she exclaimed, enraptured, but at the sound of her voice the bird crouched like a flush, large dark liquid eyes shining, long bill pointed straight toward them.

"He'll fly the way his bill points," said Seward. "Watch!"

He rose. She sprang lightly to her feet. There came a wurling tutor, a twittering shower of sweet notes, soft wings beating almost in their very faces, a distant shadow against the sky, and the woodcock was gone.

Quoting the astounded dog, gun cradled in the hollow of his left arm, he turned to the girl beside him. "That sort of thing whoo up!" he said.

"It wins something else, Mr. Seward—very warm regard for you."

"There is no shame between that and the 'shotover cup,'" he admitted, con sidering her.

"I do you mean it?"

"Of course I do!"

"Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup

Relieves Colds by working them out of the system through a copious and healthy action of the bowels.

Relieves Coughs by cleansing and strengthening the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes.

The Original Laxative Cough Syrup

Conforms to National Pure Food and Drug Law

For Croup, Whooping Cough, La Crosse, Influenza, Bronchitis, and all Coughs, Colds, Lung and Bronchial affections no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. Children like it.

Put up in 35c, 50c and $1.00 bottles at the Laboratory of

E.C. DA WITT & CO., Chicago, U.S.A.

Pleasant to take Children like it.

For Sale by

J. P. BAKER

"Then you are much wiser than I thought you. And, after all, if the price of a cup is the life of that brave little bird I had rather shoot clay pigeons. Now you will scorn me, I suppose. Beggin'!"

"My ideal woman has never been a 'cup taker,'" he said coolly. "Once when I was a boy there was a girl, very lovely, my first sweetheart. I saw her at the trap once just after she had killed her seventh pigeon straight, 'putting it down' from over head, you know, very clever. The little thing was breathing on the grass, and it made sounds!" He struggled and walked on. "She killed her twenty-first bird straight. It was a hand-some cup too."

And after a silence, "So you didn't love her any more, Mr. Seward?"

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

"Under that bunch of ferns," he whispered. "Do you think we might by any chance?"

Seward nervously sunk to his knees and crouched, keen eyes minutely busy among the shadowy browns and grays of wet earth and withered leaf, and after awhile cautiously he signaled the girl to kneel beside him and stretched out one arm, forefinger extended.

"Sight straight along my arm," he said, "as though it were a rifle barrel."

Her soft cheek rested against his shoulder, a tiny strand of shining hair brushing his face.

MOUNT ROYAL MAY BE SAFE, Vessel Like Missing Steamer Reported Off Fastnet Light.

St. John's, N. B., Jan. 7.—Hope for the safety of the Canadian Pacific steamer Mount Royal, long overdue at this port, from Antwerp, which has been gradually wasting its day after day went by without the receipt of intelligence, was revived Monday night by a cable dispatch from the Liverpool manager to the head officials of the line announcing that a steamer resembling the missing vessel had been reported 250 miles west of Fastnet Light, southwest of Ireland. The Canadian Pacific officials feel certain that the steamer sighted is the Mount Royal, and the Lake Manitoba has been dispatched from Liverpool to assist her.

Murdered by Discharged Miner.
Ironwood, Mich., Jan. 7.—Capt. William Thomas, superintendent of the Aurora mine of the United States Steel corporation here, was shot and killed Monday by John Bondono, an Italian miner. One hundred and fifty men were laid off at the mine last week, Bondono being one of the number. As Thomas was leaving his office Bondono asked him for re-employment and being refused, fired three shots at the superintendent, from a revolver, two of the bullets striking him in the breast. Bondono was caught after a long chase and was roughly handled before the officers arrived. Capt. Thomas was a pioneer of the Gogebic iron range and leaves a large family. Bondono came here six years ago from Iron Mountain, Mich.

Train Kills Man and Child.
Trinidad, Col., Jan. 7.—While D. V. Vigh, a well-known ranchman, his wife and grandchild, aged six, were crossing the railroad track near Mahon street station Monday the wagon they were riding in was struck by a Colorado & Southern passenger train. Vigh and the child were instantly killed and Mrs. Vigh so badly hurt that she will die.

Killed on Railway Crossing.
Steubenville, O., Jan. 7.—Mrs. George Kuhn, 37 years old, and her two-year-old son were killed and Mr. Kuhn was fatally injured in a rail-way crossing Monday night. They were struck by a passenger train while attempting to cross the Pennsylvania railway tracks.

Not Hard for Paddy.
At a political meeting an Irishman watched closely the trombone player in the band. Presently the man laid down his instrument and went out for a beer. Paddy investigated, and promptly pulled the horn to pieces. The player returned. "Who's modelled mit my drombone?" he roared. "Ol did," said Paddy. "Horn you've been for two hours tryin' to pull it apart, an' Ol did it in wan minute!"

Want ads. bring results.

SENATOR CULLOM

Washington, Jan. 7.—Senator Shelby M. Cullom of Illinois, one of the most notable and substantial members of the national senate, has introduced a resolution, fathered originally by the National Business Men's League of Chicago, for a constitutional amendment providing that a president of the United States shall be chosen for a term of six years and shall not chickens, 10½; springers, 9; Butter-Creamery, 20@29; dairy, 18@25.

Eggs—Strong, 26@27 for fresh laid stock, others as low as 18, JANESEVILLE MARKETS.

Janeville, Jan. 7.

Ear Corn—$15. Corn Meal—$30 per ton. Feed Corn and Oats—$30 to $32 per ton. Standard middlings—$28 to $30 per ton. Oil Meal—$1.85 to $1.95 per cwt. Oats—45 to 50 cents per bushel. Hay—$11 to $12 per ton. Straw—Baled, 36 to 37 per ton. Bran—$28 to $27 per ton. Rye—80 cents for 60 lbs. Barley—70 to 77 cents. Creamery Butter—30c lb. Dairy Butter—27 to 28 cents lb. Eggs—Fresh, 22 to 33c; cold storage, 18 to 20c. Potatoes—15 to 60 cents per bushel.

Elgin Butter Market.
Elgin, Ill., Jan. 6.—Elgin butter market 29½c per lbm.

WILLIE HOPPE

Willie Hoppe, who has just returned from Europe, says he is out to smash the combination of billiard champions Schenner and Sutton, and will make a strong bid, both for the 18.1 and the 18.2 titles. He will bid, however, that all matches he for at least 1,800 points, to run from three to five be eligible for re-election. Coming from Senator Cullom the resolution attains an unusual prominence and significance. Senator Cullom himself has played many an important part in presidential affairs. As far back as 1872 he was a delegate of the national Republican convention at Philadelphia, being chairman of the Illinois delegation, and at that time he placed the victorious General Grant in nomination for the presidency. He was elected governor of Illinois in 1876 and held this position until elevation to the United States senate December 4, 1883, from which time his service in the upper house has been continuous.

MARKET REPORT

[OFFICIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Cattle receipts, 7,500; market, steady, 10c lower; heifers, 3,50@7.50; cows and heifers, 12.50@4.50; western, 3,10@4.50; calves, 5.00@6.75. Hog receipts, 41,000; market, 5@10c lower; light, 4.15@4.55; heavy, 4.20@4.55; mixed, 4.25@4.60; pigs, 3.60@4.25; bulk of sows, 4.10@4.55. Sheep receipts, 13,000; market, strong; western, 3,00@4.25; natives, 3.00@7.50. Lamb, 4.75@6.90. Wheat: July—Opening, 99@101; high, 100c; low, 98½c; closing, 98½c. May—Opening, 1,07½@10½; high, 1,07½c; low, 1,06c; closing, 1,06½@10½ asked. Rye—Closing, 82. Barley—Closing, 88@100. Corn—May, 61@61½; July, 60½@6½; Sept., 60@60½. Oats—Closing—May, old, 51½; May, 53½; July, old, 48½; July, 46½; Sept., 40½.

Poultry: Hens, turkeys, 8@11;

Ora Morningstar claims that Schenner and Sutton have formed a championship billiard trust and do not intend to let the title get away from them for some time to come. Hoppe astonished Europe with his wonderful play and is generally considered America's champion 18.1 ball billiard player.

Land of Cider.

The left bank of the Rhine in the neighborhood of Aix-la-Chapelle and Trevos is the classic land of cider. The superior brand is called vietz, and this shares with the Taunus brand the reputation of being the best cider in the world. In both the spelerling or sorb apple or seewickeapple, a small sweet fruit peculiar to Europe, is used.

NORRIS BROWN, OF NEBRASKA.

Nebraska's new representative in the senate is a comparatively young man. He is but 41 years of age and does not show even those years. His hair and eyes are dark, his form sufficiently round to hint of opulence and

THE RICH GAVE WELL LAST YEAR.

EAST SIDE HITCH BARN,

Janeville, Wis.

The best equipped barn in Rock county. Facilities for handling 125 rigs. Ladies' waiting room, comfortably arranged and heated. All work receives the personal attention of the proprietor. The barn is large and roomy, clean, dry, well-kept and most conveniently located.

Sale day the 3rd Thursday in each month. Next Sale Day January 16th. This will be a BIG COMBINATION SALE. Everything saleable will be sold. Bring your horses, cattle, buggies, machinery, farm implements, anything you want to sell. Special auctioneer. Everything sold under the hammer.

ALL THE BIG BUYERS WILL BE HERE.
Elmer Phone M. E. HILTON, Prop.

THE DOWNFALL OF PRICES AT REHBERG'S

Another Notable Saving Event at the People's Stores—Clothing and Shoe Figures Slit and Sliced During This Clearance.

HERE is a sale that WILL interest you. It deals entirely with new, fresh stock, and the prices are so low as to require no second thought in the decision to buy. When the Rehberg sales begin there is no question as to bargain giving—the one idea is to clean out the stocks, and every effort is aimed to this end. There is never any accumulation of old materials here. When an offering is made the cream of merchandise is at your command.

Suit and Overcoat Prices Down—Suits & Overcoats Will Move Sure

Three Prices $9.95, $14.95, $16.95

All our handsome Suits and Overcoats, regular $12, $12.50 and $13.50 garments—those popular, serviceable, pretty pattern clothes. Your choice at.....

$9.95

Those Suits and Overcoats of the regular $16.50 to $18 variety. The suits are of those natty patterns; coat cut perfectly, trousers the proper shape. Overcoats of proper length and of the nicest sort of materials. Your unlimited choice.....

$14.95

The man who waited for a chance to secure one of those hand tailored Suits that put the made-to-measure fellows "up a stump" to equal at half again the price; those suits which have sold all the time at $22.50 and $20,—can revel in good dress at a good sized saving. Your choice of these suits for.....

$16.95

All fine high grade Overcoats, and there are beauties in those $22.50 and $20 garments, go at.....

$16.95

THE BIG SAVING CHANCE FOR MOTHERS

BOYS' CLOTHING SACRIFICED—Our boys' and children's department represents the very best to be found in the markets and the opportunity to select from it at cut prices should be an extra inducement for parents at this time.

Buster Brown, Norfolk or plain Suits, made in the very best manner from handsome materials; short Overcoats, as well as the longer garments, made in the catchy, hand-some styles, are offered without reserve. Those regularly sold at

$5.50 now	$4.25	$4.50 now	$3.25
$5.00 now	$3.75	$4.50 now	$2.95
$4.50 now	$3.45	$3.50 now	$2.65
		$2.50 now	$1.95

PRIZE FOR BOYS

On January 18th, 1908, we will give FREE a Suit of Viking Clothes to the boy who sends to us before that date the largest list of words made from the two words, "VIKING SUITS."

All Viking Suits, those iron wearing, handsome boys' clothes, at $4.50

Clearance Sale of Shoes

We shall hold a general clearance throughout our entire shoe stock and the chance for securing a high grade shoe at low price for the balance of winter wear will appeal to many of you.

SHOES FOR MEN AND WOMEN.

A suggestion of what you can buy:
Regular $3.00 Shoes, cut to..... $2.45
Regular $2.50 Shoes, cut to..... $1.95
Regular $3.50 Shoes, cut to..... $2.70

WARM SLIPPERS MUST GO—The regular Slippers sold at $1.50 now 98c, $1.00 now 69c. Plenty of salespeople to look after your requirements.

AMOS REHBERG & CO.

We Clothe the Masses. Three Stores—Clothing and Shoes. On the Bridge

